FDIC Insurance Protection	Your deposits with us are insured by the FDIC up to $250,000 per depositor. Additional insurance may be available based on the account styling. Consult a Relationship Banker for further details.

Interest
Interest begins to accrue no later than the business day that the Bank receives credit for the deposit of noncash items, such as checks. Unless stated otherwise, we use the average daily collected balance method to calculate interest on your account. The interest rate and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) are administered by the Bank and may change daily at the discretion of the Bank, unless stated otherwise. View our competitive interest rates at Rate Details. Any APY quoted for your CD assumes compounded interest remains on deposit until maturity, and a withdrawal of interest prior to maturity will reduce your earnings.
Compounding	Interest is compounded quarterly
Payouts	Interest is paid quarterly, and also at maturity. Interest is credited to your CD, unless you advise us that you prefer one of the following payout options: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– You may have the interest paid to you via check</li> <li>– You may have the interest credited to your Bank of Arizona checking, savings or money market account</li> </ul>
